

Google Technical Admin Boot Camp

The Google Technical Admin Boot Camp is specifically designed for district IT directors and administrators who want a better understanding of the management tools and features of Google Apps for Education, Chromebooks and Android Tablets.

A next level training, this event will help you take the next step to lead your organization in their Google App implementation.

Learning outcomes for this workshop include:

- Configure your Domain
  - Understanding organizational units
  - User management
  - Configure core services
- Managing your Data & Systems
  - Creating and managing Google Groups
  - Administrative roles
  - Reporting tools
- Safety and Security
  - Backing up and security configuring Google Vault
  - Data privacy concerns and discussion
- Manage Devices
  - Chrome Browsers
  - Chromebooks
  - Android Tablets with Google Play for EDU
- Google Admin Certification Exam
  - Why become a Certified Google Admin
  - Exam content and process
  - Study tips and suggestions

John Sowash is a Google Apps Certified Administrator with years of experience in setting up, managing, and configuring Google Apps for Education, Chromebooks and Android Tablets. Not only does John understand the ins-and-outs of the management console, he is also a former classroom teacher who understands best practices for configuring technology to meet the needs of teachers and their students. John is a passionate presenter who enjoys helping schools around the world use technology to improve student learning.

Registration is open: <https://goo.gl/W5Fvwb>

For more information about the Google certification: edutrainingcenter.withgoogle.com

Audience:

Administrators and IT Staff responsible for providing technical services to the school community.

Individual participant requirements:

Laptop with the Chrome Browser.

Access to a GAFFE C-Panel.

Access to a Chromebook is recommended.

Schedule:

October 14, 2016

Capital Area IU15

55 Miller Street

Enola, PA 17025

Registration - 8:30AM

Sessions - 9:00AM - 3:00PM

5 Act 48 Hours

Program Cost: $149

Includes breakfast and lunch

Kiker Learning
Instructional Technology & Design

Google for Education
Partner

Rich Kiker
Kiker Learning

